Top 10 Most Inspiring Businesswomen in Singapore

In the first edition of “Top 10 of Asia” magazine, our Group Managing Director, Ms Annie Yap has been listed as one of the Top 10 Most Inspiring Businesswomen in Singapore.

Ms Annie Yap was the winner of the Leading CEO Award at the Singapore Human Resources Institute’s HR awards in 2007 and she was previously, the CEO of The GMP Group.

However, in 2009 she decided she would challenge herself and began on an entrepreneurship journey and founded AYP Asia Group, a provider of executive search as well as HR Consultancy Services.

In a short span of 4 years, AYP Asia Group has since expanded with Premium Staffing as a subsidiary and staff strength of 35. AYP Asia Group is operating in countries such as Singapore, Shanghai, Jakarta and Hong Kong

MOST INSPIRING BUSINESSWOMEN IN SINGAPORE

IN THIS CHALLENGING, FAST-PACED AND OFTEN MALE-DOMINATED BUSINESS WORLD, THERE ARE A FEW INDUSTRIOUS LADIES WHO HAVE MADE A NAME FOR THEMSELVES IN THE WORLD OF COMMERCE. IN THIS ISSUE, TOP 10 OF ASIA TAKES A BRIEF LOOK AT ITS LIST OF THE 10 MOST INSPIRING BUSINESSWOMEN IN SINGAPORE (LISTED IN NO PARTICULAR ORDER) WHO HAVE GAINED MUCH RECOGNITION AND ADMIRATION IN THEIR JOURNEY TO BE WHERE THEY ARE TODAY.

“ Before her entrepreneurship journey began, Annie Yap was already a young, dynamic and prominent leader in Singapore’s human resources industry. She was the Winner of the Leading CEO Award at the Singapore Human Resources Institute’s HR awards in 2007 and was responsible in bringing The GMP Group’s growth over the last 10 years. Yet, Yap decided to leave her comfort zone and set off to embark on an entrepreneurship journey and thus, AYP Associates, a specialist in executive search and placement business, was established in 2009. Under her leadership, the company has now grown to 35 staffs and operating from 4 different countries in Asia. Since its inception, the recruitment group has also expanded into the Hong Kong and Indonesia markets under the AYP Associates and Premium Staffing brands. ”
